

Jonathon Wolf, MD

Fellowship-trained in Foot & Ankle Orthopedics

Dr. Wolf completed a foot and ankle fellowship at the Harvard-affiliated Massachusetts General Hospital in Boston. Prior to that he graduated from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology followed by medical school at the University of Washington in Seattle and a five-year orthopedic surgery residency at the University of Cincinnati Medical Center.

Dr. Wolf specializes in orthopedic surgery, and sub-specializes in foot and ankle surgery, including deformity correction. He also performs total ankle replacements and is skilled in the operative and non-operative treatment of general orthopaedic injuries.

Dr. Wolf has been practicing in the Treasure Valley since 2015 and lives in Eagle with his wife, Holly, and their two children.

+ Philosophy

Dr. Wolf believes in tailoring a patient's treatment, whether that be operative or non-operative management, to the needs of the individual. He will carefully consider all orthopedic options with the goal of returning each patient, if possible, to their pre-injury level of performance.
